

Happy to be me!

Listening to others

This theme encourages our children to look closely at themselves and their families. It promotes talk about the make-up of their family and what they enjoy doing together. They also begin to look at things they have done in the past and how they have changed and grown already.

Conflict 	Getting along with each other Building relationships
Culture 	my family my friends' families
Communication 	Manners How to communicate in the classroom Listening
Conservation 	n/a

Vocabulary

- senses
- diversity
- belonging
- differences
- appearance

Happy to be me!

enjoy

Learning Environment Opportunities

WONDERS

Woodland Workshop and Pond Area - Exploring their new surroundings

WONDERS

WONDERS

Now Press Play - We are all different.

inspire Suggestion

Share photos of their families with their peers.

achieve Question

Are we all the same?